TRIO IN South Korea

This month we reached out to our students in South Korea and we're glad to announce they are doing great! Check out some of their pictures above

March Recap

Thanks to our students who joined us at Nickel Cade to play some games!

TRIO

in

NYC

During Spring Break, some of our students were able to go visit New York to learn about graduate school. They visited Columbia and NYU as well as a bunch of other famous New York spots like Central Park and Times Square. Check out the pics!

MOVIE NIGHT!

Thanks to our students that joined us to the movies to watch Uncharted! We hope you enjoyed it violence prevention workshop

while making tea bags!

On March 24th, our students heard from Ashley Yong, the Program Coordinator at the McCluskey Center for Violence Prevention, about sex education, healthy relationships, and how to identify signs of a toxic relationship. All while learning how to make their own tea bags!

We recognize that there are times when students need additional help outside of TRIO. Below are many of our campus community partners that provide wonderful services, click on the names to visit their websites
