TRIO Alternative Break

Recognizing and Overcoming Inequity in Higher Education

Overview

Date: 03/03/23 - 03/09/23

Location: Reno, Nevada

About this Experience	Eligibility
This immersive experience, designed for student engagement, delves into the profound impact of historical disparities marginalized groups face in higher education. The break is a gateway for participants to actively contribute to dismantling these barriers while gaining a deeper understanding of the intersectionality at play and their identities. It is a great opportunity for those passionate about inclusivity and equity in educational spaces. Through a carefully crafted itinerary, participants will explore the historical context of systemic inequities, providing a comprehensive foundation for their advocacy efforts. Engaging with local communities, educational institutions, and organizations, students will witness firsthand the challenges marginalized groups face, fostering empathy and a sense of responsibility. An integral aspect of the break is emphasizing the identity work underrepresented students through workshops, discussions, and collaborative projects, participants will unravel the unique hurdles marginalized communities often face, paving the way for informed and compassionate advocacy. While challenging the current norms, and systemic disparities in higher education.	Must be an active participant of TRIO Student Support Services <tr> <th data-bbox="950 1092 1193 1163">Cost</th> <td data-bbox="950 1163 1193 1591"> Fee will be waived for TRIO participants selected to participate in this specific break. Those fees include transportation, housing, and meals.
