

Upward Bound

February Newsletter

It's the month of love, unless your heart has been frozen over by the frigid temperatures in January. We are in the full swing of Term 3, which can be a rough term for students. Make sure to keep up on your homework! We have some fun days in the mix this month, including ACT prep and TRIO day!

Important Dates

2/11 Saturday Tutoring + ACT Test Prep+ Mandatory Bridge Meeting

2/17 No School for Granite

2/20 No School for Granite + Salt Lake

2/23-2/25 ASPIRE Youth Leadership @WSU

2/25 TRIO Day! Students will be doing a service project on campus after tutoring.

Congratulations on the Scholarships!

Congratulations to Leti and Adrian for killing those scholarship applications! They were both awarded the MLK Youth Scholarship for the University of Utah, which honors students that are dedicated to Martin Luther King's vision of community service and leadership.

Thank You Emery!

Emery's last day at TRIO was January 27th. We will miss her humor, her kindness, and her dedication to her students. We wish her luck with her future endeavors!

Welcome Kevin!

Kevin is our new UB tutor! He's an engineering student and can assist with all your math and science quandaries.

Fun Fact: He can deadlift 300 lbs! At one point, he could bench press his body weight.

Important Announcement

Rubi will be working with SSS for the month of February while we hire a replacement for Emery. She will not be attending tutoring sessions. If you need her, you can reach her via GroupMe or her email.
